Department Statement

The Department of Theatre Arts serves Boise State University, the College of Arts and Sciences, the city of Boise, and the state of Idaho as an urban institution for learning the craft of and practicing theatre arts while helping foster rigorous intellectual investigation and an active arts community. As a Department we: provide theoretical and practical courses and experiences that focus on a variety of theatrical disciplines within a liberal arts environment; provide seasons of plays that challenge and educate our students throughout the University and offer cultural enrichment to the community at large; prepare Theatre Arts majors to work in the performing arts industry, to study theatre at the graduate level, and to achieve state certification to teach drama; support faculty research and professional creative activity on regional, national, and international levels; and support the growth and operations of local theatre for the mutual benefit of the Department, the profession, and the community.

Theatre Arts, Secondary Education

The Theatre Arts, Secondary Education program is designed to assist students in developing the knowledge, skills, and dispositions essential for success in teaching theatre and drama at the secondary level. Course work combines content knowledge and production experience, theories of learning and human development, study of curriculum, and methodology. The program is grounded in the conceptual framework of the Professional Educator. Professional educators adjust their teaching approaches and learning environment to the needs and backgrounds of their students. Candidates who complete this program demonstrate evidence of meeting the Idaho Beginning Teacher Standards and are eligible for recommendation for state certification.

Students wishing to pursue this degree must meet the requirements and standards for admission to teacher education, which are fully described under the Department of Curriculum, Instruction, and Foundational Studies or at <http://education.boisestate.edu>. Students are expected to meet all knowledge, skill, and dispositional requirements for continued enrollment in the program.
